

Speaker Programs

MASTERING THE ART OF CHANGE

Telling ourselves the truth about why we resist helps us master the science and intuition behind successful change. Lots of stories and good fun laced with action steps and audience interaction.

WILD RIDE

15 Outrageous and inspiring stories of challenging events, places situations and opportunities that came into my life all before I turned 40. Audiences are charged with courage to try ...anything!

Harmony Thiessen is a speaking veteran with over 2000 professional audience engagements. Using laughter, creative entertainment, analogies, storytelling and audience interaction, Harmony delivers a professional, customized program that empowers participants to move forward and feel good in the process.

Visit HarmonyThiessen.com for testimonials, videos and more programs.

“Change challenges our life stories personally and as organizations. Our need for control is heightened and the normal response is resistance.

I work with people who want to understand the root cause behind the resistance and to engage dynamic strategies to move forward.” (HT)

Travels from Denver, CO and Vancouver, BC

303.865.6500 Harmony@HarmonyThiessen.com

HARMONYTHIESSEN.COM